only realize that ill - health robs them not only of life, but of their fortune as well, there would be fewer penni-less widows and orphans to drag out cheerless lives. When a man holds a dollar close up to his eyes, it shuts the light of good judgment, and looks or than life or death, or wife or child, facts are that ill-health very soon puts to a man's money-making powers ies ien a man's digestion is out of order his liver sluggish, his brain gets dull, mucles sluggish, his blood impure and organ in the body—brain, lungs, stomach, liver and kidneys—becomes led. A man with a crippled lung, heart, brain or kidney, is a worse le ten times over, than a man who is a leg or an arm. The man who is liver, heart, brain or kidney, is a worse crapile ten times over, than a man who is minus a leg or an arm. The man who is emplied ontside may live a long life but the man who is crippled inside is taking a short cut to the grave. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures indigestion, makes the spetite keen, the liver active, the blood pure and every organ healthy and vigorous. It makes blood and builds flesh up to the healthy standard. Honest dealers don't recommend substitutes.

"I wish to say to those who suffer from kidney and bladder trouble—take Dr. R. V. Pierce's Collen Medical Discovery," writes Dr. Anderson, of Carthage, Jasper Co., Mo. "A patient of mine savs it is worth $50 per bottle to any one who is smitted as he was. Three bottles cured him entirely. Perfectly miserable he was, before taking the Discovery and now is one of the happiest men in this County. Prof. Chreine would gladly sign this if he were in town. He requested me to write a testimonial and make it as strong as the English language could make it."

AZTEC MINES DISCOVERED. The discovery by William Niven, of this city, of important evidences of the past civilization of the Aztecs and related tribes has been verified on the arrival of the explorer in the capital of Mexico. He found a number of prepistoric ruins and a sealed ossuary containing skeletons. He has incidentally G. WM. RAMSAY found new silver mines and promising placers, the latter, perhaps, a redis covery of diggings from which the Az tecs drew their wealth. It needs that only half which is on record of the Azecs in Montezuma's time be true to indicate that gold was the commonest of their metale. They did not hold it in the value that Europeans gave to it, and this fact enabled Cortez and his followers to rob these people in a royal dashion. Shields, helmets, cups. brace 14s and nuggets were delivered in exchange for promises and friendships that were as empty as the promises of Spain have ever been. After enriching Cortez, the natives found themselves at is mercy; their emperor a captive, their temples despoiled, strange im-iges set up in public places, before which they were compelled to bow and worship, and in the end the Spaniard possessed the land.

In Peru and adjacent States si milar dramas were enacted, and the white man gained his power by the copious hedding of blood. It is not improb able that when the greed of the invaders for the yellow metal was discovered, the Aztecs and other native tribes desisted from the mining of it, noping by representations that the sup ply was exhausted to keep the troops, with their swords and thundering can non, from any further advance into their country. It does not take long in a tropical country for eroded banks to clothe themselves afresh in vegetation; hence in a few years the tokens of placer mining would have disappeared, and after the people had been driven to other parts of the country, or had been occupied in the general defense, these beds of gold-bearing gravel would be the country. This discovery if such it forgotten. This discovery, if such it s, may prove to be important—not so much so as the Klondike, probably, for much has already been taken them, yet not significant, since modern methods insure a larger return for labor than the old way, which was nothing but the picking of nuggets from the stream beds. American capital will pro ably develop these mines, and we may have a need of gold in the next few years .- [Brooklyn Eagle.

A QUEER STORY .- D. Blackwell who mysteriously disappeared from the Adams House, Buston, on the morning of September 9, 1886, returned to his home in Montpelier, Vt., yesterday. A telegram was received from him by his relatives Saturday, asking if his wife and children and aged mother were living. The telegram was sent from Burlington, Vt. The intelligence that of King and Union streets, the best stand in he son, husband and father, long the city for a grocery. Possession given on the first of May. Apply at this office to his family on Sunday, and he arrived at his home at 1 o'clock Monday morning. The meeting can better be imagin-ed than described. The story told by Mr. Blackwell is that he does not remember being in Boston, and awoke conscious on a Panama steamer, and later in a San Francisco hospital. A woman helped him come east.
